

Teacher Discounts

Many companies offer a discount to educators, including homeschoolers, with some form of proof that you are an educator. Often you can use your Notice of Intent to Homeschool. For stores that require something different, the reply from your school district or an identification card from a homeschooling support group are other options. For specific requirements, please ask the individual retailers what they require.

Below is a list of some companies that offer discounts for homeschoolers.

Apple Computers - The full line of educational products are available to homeschoolers who meet their state's requirements for legally homeschooling.

Books-A-Million - 20% discount when you fill out a teacher discount card.

Borders bookstores - 20% discount. Apply in store.

Joann Crafts - 10% in-store discount. Apply in store and get a 25% discount on your entire purchase the day that you apply.

Ms. Mary's School Source -10% discount on Wednesdays for teachers, in store only.

Office Depot Star Teacher Program - Apply in-store for the card which gives you 10% off of supplies for your school.

Office Max -Earn $10 in MaxPerks rewards every time you purchase $75 in qualifying OfficeMax purchases. Apply in store or online.

Most of this information came from The Homeschool Mom website. Visit their site for more Homeschool Discounts.